

SPUNK 2022

The international festival of improvisation is back in Zurich

You should stop when it's at its best: And what could be better than the 10th anniversary of SPUNK? The tenth and last edition of the international improv theater festival SPUNK will take place in mid-October. Top-class improv actors from the USA, Great Britain, Poland, Germany, the Netherlands, Austria, Slovenia and Switzerland will meet from October 10 to 16, 2022 at the Theater im Zollhaus in the heart of Zurich.

The festival ensemble will show evening after evening what improvisational theater can do: From entertaining comedy evenings to poetic improv pieces, a performance without lights to improvised songs, everything is included. Each show is unique and will never be seen the same way again.

From Monday to Saturday, SPUNK offers visitors the opportunity to immerse themselves in the spontaneous, exciting and multifaceted world of improvised theater with stars from all over the world. On stage at the Theater im Zollhaus, captivating stories and characters emerge from the moment. A unique and one-of-a-kind theater experience, created for one evening only.

SPUNK - Zurich Improv Festival

For 10 years SPUNK has been showing what improvisation in the theater can be. In a compact, vibrant setting, the festival's guest shows and performances by the international festival ensemble reveal the diversity of this art form, and the workshops and shows in public and private spaces allow the general public to take part.

An event presented by anundpfirsich

anundpfirsich has been improvising on stages in Switzerland and Europe since 2005. The ensemble creates and plays innovative forms of improvisation theatre and offers theatre courses, company training and development, and seminars on spontaneity, presence and presentation skills. The members are internationally renowned as proven experts in the field of improvisation on stage and in everyday life. In collaboration with the Kalkbreite cooperative, they opened the 200-seat Theater im Zollhaus in spring 2021 in a prime location in Zurich. It is the first theater in Europe to deal exclusively with improvisation. www.pfirsi.ch
